Exhibit 4. Press Release

Acquisition of American company DMC by SNPE

DENVER -- SNPE of France, through its American subsidiary, SNPE Inc., has acquired an additional 2,109,091 shares of Dynamic Materials Corp. (DMC) of the United States (Nasdaq: BOOM), a Delaware corporation in which it already held a 14.3 percent stake (since January 2000), giving SNPE a controlling interest of approximately 50.8 percent.

SNPE, beside its worldwide chemical business which accounts for more than 50% of its revenues, is a leading European supplier of energetic materials for civil and defense applications. For more than 30 years Nobelclad Europe, a division of SNPE'S Industrial Explosives business unit, has developed and applied explosion bonding techniques for use in the chemical, electrometallurgy, shipbuilding and other industries.

SNPE expects that as a result of synergies resulting from the cooperation between Nobelclad Europe and DMC's bonding division, SNPE will be able to offer its international customers an array of metal clad products providing competitive advantages over the weldoverlay and hot rolling processes. Through shared research and development efforts by these divisions, SNPE expects to be able to develop new applications for its products, extend the product range offered to customers, enhance product and service quality and deliver effective solutions to chemical engineering firms and other customers.

At the special meeting of stockholders of DMC, which took place in Denver (Colorado) on Wednesday, June 14th, 2000, DMC also approved the expansion of its Board of Directors to 7 members, including 4 new directors from SNPE. At the meeting of the DMC Board of Directors which followed the meeting of stockholders, Bernard HUEBER and Bernard FONTANA, two SNPE executive officers, were elected Chairman of the Board and President and CEO of DMC, respectively. The Board also approved an employment agreement between DMC and Joe ALLWEIN, former President, to serve as Executive Vice President and COO of DMC.

Additional information on this transaction is included in a proxy statement submitted by DMC to the S.E.C.

This press release contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, risks detailed from time to time in DMC's S.E.C. reports, including reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 1999 and December 31, 1998, and reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ending March 31, 2000 and September 30, June 30 and March 31, 1999.
