Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

(d) Election of Director

The Board of Directors of Dynamic Materials Corporation (the "Company") appointed Bernard Hueber to rejoin the Board of Directors at a meeting held on June 8, 2006. Mr. Hueber officially accepted the directorship on June 14, 2006. Mr. Hueber will fill the remaining vacancy resulting from the resignation of the directors who had represented SNPE, Inc., the Company's former majority stockholder ("SNPE"). Mr. Hueber will not initially serve on any committees of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Hueber is currently secretary general of the Federation of European Explosives Manufacturers, a position he has held since 2002. Since 2003, he also has served as a director of Financiere Harle Bickford & Cie, which is focused in part on the development of pyrotechnics for use by the explosives and automotive industries. He also is the former chairman and CEO of Nobel Explosifs France, an affiliate of SNPE, which previously operated the Company's two European cladding operations prior to their merger with the Company.

Dynamic Materials Corporation Appoints Bernard Hueber to Board of Directors

BOULDER, Colo., June 16 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Dynamic Materials Corporation ("DMC") (Nasdaq: BOOM), a leading provider of explosion-welded clad metal plates and associated services, today announced that its board of directors has appointed Bernard Hueber as an independent director.

Hueber, 64, rejoins the DMC board after serving as a director from 2000 to 2005 and as the company's chairman from 2000 to 2002. He also is the former chairman and CEO of Nobel Explosifs France, which previously operated DMC's two European cladding operations prior to their merger with DMC. Hueber played a key role in orchestrating the 2001 integration of these businesses.

Hueber is currently secretary general of the Federation of European Explosives Manufacturers, a position he has held since 2002. Since 2003, he also has served as a director of Financiere Harle Bickford & Cie, which is focused in part on the development of pyrotechnics for use by the explosives and automotive industries.

Yvon Cariou, DMC's president and CEO, said, "Bernard provides us with broad-based expertise regarding the international explosives and explosion-welding industries. Additionally, he clearly is very familiar with Dynamic Materials and the leadership position it has established in its industry. Bernard's contributions will be a true asset to our board and management team."

Hueber is one of five DMC directors, four of whom are independent.

About Dynamic Materials Corporation

Based in Boulder, Colorado, Dynamic Materials Corporation is a leading international metalworking company. Its products, which are typically used in industrial capital projects, include explosion-welded clad metal plates and other metal fabrications for use in a variety of industries, including upstream oil and gas, oil refinery, petrochemicals, hydrometallurgy, aluminum production, shipbuilding, power generation, industrial refrigeration and similar industries. The company operates two business segments: Explosive Metalworking, which uses proprietary explosive processes to fuse different metals and alloys, and AMK Welding, which utilizes various technologies to weld components for use in power-generation turbines, as well as commercial and military jet engines.
